Land Records ATTY. MARK SPURLING

Municipal clerks and other local government officials have identified land records as one of the most important and challenging areas to master. This class will feature a comprehensive examination of the fundamentals of land records, including common (and not-so-common) problems encountered, and will encourage questions from the floor.

In addition to managing a general law practice for over 10 years, Attorney Mark Spurling is an Assistant Professor of Business Law at the University of Connecticut, where he teaches Business Law and Legal and Ethical Environment of Business. He is also active in local governmental commissions.

➤ REGISTRATION FOR THIS WORKSHOP IS LIMITED – register early!
Course completion awards 6.5 credit hours toward CMC/State of Connecticut certification
